

about the event

Condom Couture brings people together with a healthy dose of curiosity, creativity, and passion for fashion and performance!

2019's sold-out Condom Coutre was attended by over 300 people, including more than 30 corporate and individual sponsors and many local community leaders. Guests start the evening with themed cocktails and mingling. The event features an exciting live auction, six performances, and a call to action: raising awareness around current issues threatening health and reproductive justice for all.

This year's event will feature performers wearing condom-inspired fashions created by local designs and community members.
